SIR,

Adverting to Government Order No. 7(2731 / F.792-17-11 dated 10th December 1918 prescribing an Examination for those who are to be promoted to the grade of Accountants in this office, I have the honor to state that those officials who had passed Accounts Higher were exempted from answering papers on Mysore Service Regulations and Civil Account Code, Volume I, and those who had passed Public Works Divisional Test were exempted in Precis-writing, Mysore Service Regulations and Public Works Code. These were required to sit for only the remaining subjects and were allowed only two chances.

2. From the date of the above order the Accountants Examination was held twice once in October 1919 and again in November 1920. For the Examination held in October 1919 neither were the copies of Government of India Public Works Code available nor had the volume of Mysore Account Code corresponding to the Public Works Code, been issued to enable the candidates to study the books and prepare themselves for the examination. Though copies of Civil Account Code, Volume II which deals with Audit Office Procedure were available they were not of much use as the procedure in this office had been considerably altered consequent on the changes introduced by Mr. Datta and the Mysore Account

Subject matter.

Codes relating to Public Works and Audit Office Procedure had not been complied and copies became available only ~~early~~ lately. Besides, copies of the text book on Book-keeping first prescribed were not available and another had therefore to be prescribed after ascertaining that the book first prescribed was not available which took sometime. Owing to these difficulties and inconveniences many of the officials that sat for the examination in October 1919 were seriously handicapped and could not therefore secure a pass in the examinations held in 1919-and 1920.

3. Another examination has been announced to be held in December next. Such of those who have already exhausted the two chances have sent in their applications to sit for the ensuing examination also. If the rules are strictly enforced they cannot be permitted to appear for the examination. But in view of the difficulties pointed out above, I have as a special case admitted them this year especially as the men themselves are anxious to qualify themselves for the posts they hold or aspire and there is great need for such qualified men at present.

4 I, therefore, request that my action may be approved.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. Satyanarayana
